This is an information notice given under the social security law and will be used to calculate your rate of payment or to review your entitlement under the social security law.

1 What is your estimate of the net market value of your (and your partner's) normal household contents and personal effects?

Market value is what you would get if you sold your household contents and personal effects. It is not the replacement or insured value.

Household contents include all normal furniture such as soft furnishings (e.g. curtains), electrical appliances other than fixtures such as stoves and built-in items, antiques and works of art. Personal effects include jewellery for personal use and hobby collections (e.g. stamps, coins).

Total net market value $

Your share of total value $

Your partner's share of total value $

2 Do you (or your partner) have an insurance policy that can be cashed in?

No

Yes ► Please give details below

Do not include details of life office or friendly society insurance bonds. If you have these investments, please give details on the Income and Investments form Mod(i). If you do not have this form, contact Centrelink or go to our website at www.centrelink.gov.au
